Everything You Need to Navigate Your Executive Program at Cumberlands

University of the Cumberlands Executive Programs are designed for working professionals seeking master's and doctoral degrees through a flexible hybrid learning format. Serving both international and domestic students, these programs combine online coursework with immersive residency experiences that provide meaningful interaction with faculty, industry experts, and accomplished business leaders. Residency sessions connect classroom learning to current industry trends, leadership challenges, and real-world professional practice.

Executive-format programs emphasize applied learning, allowing students to immediately connect academic concepts to workplace challenges and career goals. Through practitioner-focused coursework, collaborative learning experiences, and professional networking opportunities, students develop the knowledge, leadership skills, and strategic thinking needed to advance in today's competitive global workforce.

Students enroll in three courses each semester during the fall, spring, and summer terms. Two courses focus on discipline-specific content within the student's degree program, while the third course is the Applied Learning Practicum (INTR). The practicum provides opportunities to apply classroom concepts through professional employment, internships, organizational projects, and workplace-based learning experiences, reinforcing the connection between theory and practice.

As part of each semester, students participate in an intensive residency experience designed to enhance learning through faculty engagement, peer collaboration, applied activities, and professional development. Residency sessions are currently offered in Dallas, Detroit, Newark, Northern Kentucky, San Francisco, Seattle, and Washington, D.C., providing students with convenient access to in-person learning opportunities across the United States.

At University of the Cumberlands, executive programs are built around academic excellence, professional growth, and affordability, empowering students to earn respected graduate credentials while continuing to build their careers.

I have learned a lot through University of the Cumberlands executive doctoral program. The combination of great professors and affordable tuition have enabled me to complete my degree. Having been in the IT field for many years, I am a lifelong learner. I appreciate all of the efforts in helping to acheive my goals while continuing to work.

Registration Information for Current Students

Use the information found here to get you started on campus. Our student success coordinators can help guide you in course registration and get you set for orientation.

After your first semester, you are able to self-register for your courses in MyUC once a registration period is open.

If you need assistance registering for courses please watch this video:
https://helpdesk.ucumberlands.edu/support/solutions/7000048615

When you are registering please make sure that you register for 7 credits if you're on F1 Status. One main residency course, one online course either B1 (First bi term) or B2 (Second Bi term) and INTR599 (Masters Level) or INTR 799(PhD Level) or INTR 899 (Dissertation stage).

Please register at MyUC .

To find the RESIDENCY courses, utilize the advanced search function and filter by building. To find online courses, you will have to remove this filter and search by "Part of Term" for first bi-term and second bi-term. INTR courses will be in the full term, but will not have a building code. Additionally, all dissertation courses are in the full term and not offered in bi-term (8 week) format.

Note: The 3 credit hour residency courses (full-term courses) also have section numbers that are associated with their location. Those sections numbers are as follows: NKY – 20 through 29 Seattle – 30 through 39 DC area – 40 through 49 Dallas – 50 through 59

Additional Information

Important Dates

Terms of interest for Executive-format students are the Full Term (16 weeks), First Bi-Term (8 weeks), and Second Bi-Term (8 weeks).

Refund Schedule

Payment Plans

You will want to set up a payment plan at the beginning of each semester. Payment plans are processed by the campus Office of Student Accounts. If you have questions regarding payment plans, tuition balance, or payments please contact studentfinancial [at] ucumberlands.edu (studentfinancial[at]ucumberlands[dot]edu) . You can also access your balance and make payments by logging into MyUC .

If you are wanting to set up a payment plan so that you can pay in installments, you will need to do that through the MyUC .

Tuition Hold

Tuition holds are placed on student accounts by the Office of Student Accounts. If you have an outstanding tuition balance for the current semester then you will not be able to register for courses until your tuition balance has been paid in full or you are up to date on all payments in a payment plan. You can make a payment by logging onto your MyUC .

To view your balance and/or make a payment in MyUC , you will need to do so through the MyUC .

Address Hold

This stop will prevent you from registering for courses in the future. To avoid any delays in future registration periods, you will need to update your address in MyUC .

Once at the above link, please click the ellipsis at the top, left-hand corner of the page (4 boxes in the corner). Then, you will simply select "Personal Information" > "View Addresses and Phones." Then, you will need to select "Update Addresses and Phones."

On this page, you will need to click on "Current" beside the address or phone number that you want to edit. Before submitting the address changes, you must also enter the date in which you want the address change to be effective (valid) from. You do not have to enter an end date for the address. Click "Submit" to finalize the changes.

The Department of International Graduate Services will contact you via your UC student email as registration for the next term approaches. Please remember that you are required to register for (one) main class, (one) online class, and Applied Learning Practicum each semester in order to maintain your F1 status – late registration will not be accepted and can result in the termination of your student status.

Once you register for a class you will want to make note of the residency weekend that your class is scheduled, as that is the only session for that class that will be scheduled for the semester. You will need to be sure to plan your travel accordingly to ensure that you are in attendance for the full residency session.

Registration is done on a first-come, first-serve basis. Once a course is full, there will not be additional seats added, as we cannot exceed classroom seating capacity; therefore, it is advised that you register for classes as much in advance as possible. As a reminder, students cannot register for future semesters until their current tuition balance is paid in full.

These dates have been set, however, if any changes are made they will be made prior to registration for that semester. Not all dates are available at each residency location.

You can view your semester schedule in your self-service portal in your Student Profile . Once you log into your myUC account, click on Academics and then Current Schedule. Your schedule details will indicate the date and location of your residency weekend.

You can find information on the residency site locations here . Students can participate in residency sessions at one of several locations including Dallas, Detroit, Newark, NKY, San Francisco, Seattle, and Washington D.C.

Additional Support Resources for International Graduate Students

The Department of International Graduate Services is our one-stop international student resource center at the graduate level and enjoys providing support resources for our international students - from admission to the international student graduation experience and beyond. Below you will find tutorials and information regarding offices and policies for the International Graduate Students and programs.

Tuition Costs

All executive (ex) master's degree courses are $549 per credit hour. This includes any executive certificate programs offered at the master's level. For executive students entering the doctoral level courses, tuition is $749 per credit hour. For a complete breakdown of all tuition costs for executive students, visit our Tuition page.

Executive Programs Attendance Policy

Attendance to each Executive Residency class sessions is mandatory. Any absence request(s) must be reviewed and approved by the Program Director in collaboration with Director of Graduate International Student Services in advance of a residency session. Students may request to miss no more than one (1) residency session throughout the duration of their academic program.

Each missed session (approved or unapproved) will result in the student completing the absence request form and submitting official documentation, attending a make-up session, and paying a $300 Residency Make-Up fee. Make-Up session must be completed prior to the end of the term during the scheduled make up session. Noncompliance with this policy will result in dismissal from the executive program.

Students who enrolled in the Executive Programs prior to Spring 2017, will be eligible to miss only one (1) three-day residency session if they have not had two (2) previous one-day residency session absences.

How do I earn transfer credit?

We are happy to assist students with transfer credit requests after they have been admitted into the University, official transcript(s) have been received, and student place transfer request. It is University policy that a maximum of nine credit hours can be accepted of completed coursework from another institution. Approved transfer courses must have a grade of ‘B’ or better, and be relevant to courses that are part of the student’s program at UC. Transfer credit from a previously completed degree will not approved. All transfer courses are determined by the Director of each individual department. We request that students allow at least five business days for transfer requests to be processed.

How to access your unofficial UC transcript

Please see this guide to generate your unofficial UC transcript.

How to sign up for a payment plan?

Payment Plan Information - Students must complete the payment option form before the beginning of each semester indicating which method of payment you intend to pursue. Payment plans are processed by the campus Office of Student Accounts; if you have questions regarding payment plans contact studentfinancial [at] ucumberlands.edu (studentfinancial[at]ucumberlands[dot]edu) . Students enrolled in a payment plan will not be permitted to register for future semesters until their current semester tuition balance is paid in full.

Process for Letter of Invitation

Inviting Relatives or Friends to Visit You in the U.S. University of the Cumberlands does not issue invitation letters for students' relatives or friends. According to guidance from the U.S. Department of State, such a letter is neither necessary nor useful to the application for a visitor’s visa. Specific information regarding the criteria for applying for a visitor’s visa can be found on https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/us-visas/tourism-visit/visitor.html

Writing an Invitation Letter You may write a letter for your relatives or friends inviting them to visit you in the United States. You may use this sample letter, or you may choose to write your own.

Graduation Information If you are writing an invitation letter for the purpose of inviting your relatives or friends to the annual commencement ceremony, please refer to https://www.ucumberlands.edu/graduation for specific program information and dates.

You may also purchase formal graduation invitations from the UC Bookstore by going to https://www.jostens.com/apps/store/customer/1069069/University-of-the-Cumberlands/

Academic Certification If you'd like to provide your relatives or friends with additional proof that you are a University of the Cumberlands student you can access an Enrollment Verification as well as your University of the Cumberlands transcript by visiting the Office of the Registrar . You may also provide a copy of your current course schedule.

Additional Documentation If you are providing your visitor(s) a place to stay and meals, it is best if you can document this with a lease or room contract and your bank statements from the last 2 - 3 months. If you are not providing this support, your visitor(s) will need to provide evidence of their own financial resources for the visit.

You should also include a copy of your I-20 or DS-2019 and I-94 card as evidence of your immigration status in the U.S.

U.S. immigration law requires an applicant for a visa to overcome "the presumption of immigrant intent". This means that the individual should demonstrate that they have strong ties to their home country such as employment, property, and family and have no intention of staying permanently in the United States.
